

A (very few) Interesting Resources

www.grassrootsfundraising.org: Excellent resource for basic info presented in plain language, especially for small and medium-size orgs.

www.boardsource.org: All about nonprofit boards including lots about the board's role in fundraising. Check out the video Speaking of Money: A Guide to Fund-Raising for Nonprofit Board Members.

www.philanthropy.com The Chronicle of Philanthropy is the fundraising professional's newspaper full of trends and news about fundraising.

www.innonet.org has free electronic newsletter about grants in partnership with Grantstation.com ; the e-newsletter provides the latest information on new funding programs, upcoming grant deadlines, conferences, trainings, and relevant information for grant seekers.

www.charitychannel.com is the oldest and largest online community of nonprofit professionals in the world. News, articles, forums, grant opportunities, etc.

www.guidestar.org Guidestar is the site where nonprofit financial information is posted, included the 990 tax form. Additionally, info about Executive Director salary, boards, programs, etc. is often available.

www.ssir.org Stanford Social Innovation Review is an award-winning magazine covering best strategies for nonprofits, foundations, and socially responsible businesses. Excellent source for information about innovation, trends, best practices.

www.nonprofitquarterly.org Subscribing to this excellent practitioner's journal provides access to a daily e-newsletter called Nonprofit Newswire. The newswire includes a column by one of our favorite fundraisers, Simone Joyeaux.