

Energy Institute
Energy 101 Course for Low-Income Energy Service Providers
May 10-11, 2010

Presented by Nancy Hirsh, Policy Director of the Northwest Energy Coalition

Agenda

May 10

10:00 - Introductions, overview of the day, why is this session important

10:30 - History of Electricity Development in the Pacific Northwest
(1.5 hours)

Noon - Lunch - box lunches provided

1:00 - How does the Electric System Work (1.5 hours)

2:30 - Break

2:45 - Northwest and WA resource mix (1 hour)

3:45 - Open discussion on expectations and how the day went

4:00 - Adjourn for the day

May 11

9:00 - Settle in, address any opening questions

9:15 - Who are the Players in Electric System (1 hour)

10:15 - Break

10:30 - How can you impact utility and decision-maker decisions? (1 hour)

11:30 - Wrap up and next steps